

Dimitris Papadakis was born in Chios. He is a state school teacher of English and holds a BA in Greek and English Language and Literature from the University of Athens, and an MA in Linguistics from the University of KwaZulu-Natal. In Greece, he has taught English in Primary, Secondary and Vocational Schools as well as adult classes. He has also carried out projects for Environmental, Health, and European Education. In South Africa, he has taught Greek as a second/foreign language at the community school run by the Hellenic Association of KZN. He has also served PEKADE board for nine years.