

Katerina Dima, born and raised in Corinth, holds a BA in English Language Literature from the University of Athens and has successfully attended the “Starter” teacher training course at Profile Teacher Education Centre. She has been an EFL teacher for 6 years, currently in Corinth. She is interested in teaching young learners and teenagers but has also taught English for Specific Purposes at the New Centre in Athens for 4 years. She has been a member of TESOL Greece since 2003, TESOL Macedonia Thrace and a Board member of TESOL Greece since 2007.