

Ruby Polygenis (Chairperson) was born and raised in Athens. He has been a member of TESOL Greece since 2009. He has been a teacher of English since 1990 and is also a teacher of Information Technology. He is the owner of a private language and computer school. He is currently a Graduate student doing an MA in 'Teaching English to Young Learners' at the University of York, UK. He is especially interested in assisting in the improvement of teaching languages to Greek young learners.